Sample Itinerary

Day 1: Depart from US.

Depart from the US to Tel Aviv. Dinner and breakfast will be served during the flight.

Day 2: Arrive in Israel.

Upon arrival in Israel you will be met by our representative to walk you through customs. We'll drive to the hotel in Tiberias for dinner and overnight stay.

Day 3: Sea of Galilee, Jordan River Mt. Tabor.

After sailing on the Sea of Galilee, we visit Capernaum and have a remarkable bible study in the synagogue where Jesus preached. We'll proceed to the Church of Multiplication in Tabgha, where the Lord preformed the miracle of the Loaves and Fishes. Enjoy a breathtaking panoramic view of the Sea of Galilee from Mount of Beatitudes, where Jesus taught the Beatitudes. We will continue to an unforgettable experience of a baptism in the Jordan River and end our day by visiting Mount Tabor, we'll learn about the transfiguration of Jesus and the proof given by God, "This is my son, whom I love; with him I'm well pleased. Listen to him" (Matt 17:1-13). Dinner and overnight stay in Tiberias.

Day 4: Caesarea Philippi, Biblical Dan, Golan Heights.

We'll explore the Dan River which is the main water source for the Jordan River. Entering the Tel Dan Reserve is like stepping into a wonderland, walking on the trails between the bubbling brooks to the old city gate and altar will be a relaxing activity for the end of the day. Dan was the capital of the kingdom of Israel, and the story of the golden calf relates to the altar found here (1 Kings 12:26-30). After visiting Caesarea Philippi where Peter confessed Christ: "You are the Christ, the son of the living God" (Matt 16:15-16), we'll proceed to Mount Bental and have a charming panoramic view of Syria and the Golan Heights. Dinner and overnight stay in Tiberias.

Day 5: Cana, Mt. Carmel, Nazareth, Caesarea, Old Jaffa.

Drive to Cana where the wedding miracle took place and then proceed to the Church of the Annunciation in Nazareth where the angel Gabriel foretold the birth of Jesus. Visit Mount Carmel where the biblical story of the confrontation between Prophet Elijah and the Ba'al prophets took place and overlook the valley of Armageddon (Rev 16:14-16). We will proceed to Caesarea, a Roman city with many archeological remains such as the theater, the hippodrome and the city gate and enjoy the computerized exhibitions of the city in Roman times. Caesarea is the place where Paul and Peter were held in prison before being taken to Rome. What a great experience it will be to enjoy the sun set on the old city of Jaffa and to walk through the charming alleys where the Church and Monastery of Saint Peter reside. Dinner and overnight stay in Jerusalem.

Day 6: Jerusalem, Bethlehem.

Our morning starts on Mount of Olives with a breathtaking panoramic view of Jerusalem. The day continues with visits to the sites that will help us understand the Lord's prophecy of Jerusalem: The Chapel of Dominus Flevit, where Christ prophesied the destruction of Jerusalem (Luke 19:41), The Garden of Gethsemane (Luke 22:39-53) and The Church of the Agony (All Nations) - the site where it is said that Judas betrayed Jesus. We will proceed to visit sites on Mt. Zion: St. Peter in Gallicantu Church which was built over the ruins of the Palace of Caiaphas - the High Priest before whom Jesus was brought for trial (Mark 14: 53-65). We'll visit the Tomb of King David and have communion in the Upper Room—the site that commemorates Jesus' last meal with his disciples.

Our day will end by visiting the amazing Church of the Nativity in Bethlehem, the birth place of Christ.

Day 7: Jerusalem.

Our day will begin with an exciting tour to the site where much of the Bible was written, The City of King David. In this place archeologists found King Hezekiah's 2,700 year old water tunnel, one of the wonders of early engineering and the seal impression of Gemariah son of Shaphan possibly the scribe of King Zedekiah (Jeremiah 36:10). Continue to the pool of Siloam where Christ healed the blind man by sending him to wash his eyes (John 9). In the Jewish quarter of Jerusalem we will explore the Roman Cardo, the Madaba Map, the Western Wall and Davidson Center with its amazing virtual model of the second temple. On the Temple Mount we'll hear about the traders driven out of the temple by Jesus (Luke 19:45-48), explore the Dome of the Rock and other famous buildings. Continue to Bethesda where Christ healed the paralyzed man (John 5). Our journey through the Via Dolorosa (The Way of the Cross) stations will end by visiting the amazing Church of the Holy Sepulcher. We'll walk through the old city market to Damascus Gate and Garden Tomb. Dinner and overnight stay in Jerusalem.

Day 8: The Dead Sea, Massada.

This day will be dedicated to the Dead Sea area. The Judean Desert is a preferred place for a life of solitude. Different congregations built their lives there, like the Essenes in Qumran 2000 years ago, and the monasteries of today. The first stop will be an observation point over St. George monastery, which offers an amazing view of the monastery that was built on the valley cliffs. We'll continue to Qumran where the Dead Sea scrolls were uncovered. In Qumran we will try to answer questions like: Who wrote the scrolls? Who were the Essenes? Continue to Massada, the last stronghold of the Jews during the grate revolt, 2000 years ago. How much is a man willing to sacrifice for his freedom? We'll learn about the dramatic story of almost one thousand men, women and children who committed suicide in order to avoid Roman slavery. We'll visit the archeological remains of the palace, the bathhouse, the walls and enjoy the amazing view of the Dead Sea. We will proceed to bathe in the Dead Sea with its famous mud. Dinner and overnight stay in Jerusalem.

Day 9: Jerusalem.

Drive to the Israel Museum to visit the miniature Model of the city of Jerusalem from the times of the Second Temple. The model is a scaled reconstruction (1:50) of Jerusalem and the Temple at 66 CE, before the great rebellion and the destruction. We'll continue to visit Ein Kerem, a charming picturesque neighborhood surrounded by forests and characterized by small stone houses, visit Mary's Spring and hear the story of Mary who drank from the spring while visiting Elizabeth – John the Baptist's mother (Luke 1: 39-49) We shall continue to John the Baptist Monastery and tour the monastery and the church which researchers believe were first built by Saint Helena 1700 years ago. Our day will end in Ein Kerem with free time in its charming cafés.

Day 10: Back to the US.

On this day we will be back home full of unforgettable memories.
